2017 FAC Non-Nats Weather

July 20 was initially cloudy with light wind. At approximately 1 p.m., there was a severe storm with high wind and heavy rain for several hours. It was calm in the evening. Rain came again overnight.

July 21 was bright and sunny with very little wind—a great day for flying!

July 22 was overcast, but there was no wind. Beautiful, calm, indoor-like flights were achieved. The contest was very relaxed, with a lot of visitors.
